Community Benefits

- Community benefits are a way to increase the social impact of a municipal project.
- Council asked the project team to explore whether community benefits could be part of the final design.
- Potential community benefits can only be identified through consultation with the community.
- Community benefits may be incorporated into the design process, and should be identified early in the planning phase.

Africville Community Consultation

- Why we want to hear from the Africville community
- How we can connect
- What we will do with the information we gather

Potential Community Benefits

- Community improvements
- Employment opportunities
- Ideas from the community

Road to Economic Prosperity:

- Promoting open dialogue among all parties
- Addressing issues that within HRM's mandate or that HRM can influence

Examples of Community Benefits

Pedestrian access from Windsor Street Exchange to Africville

Active transportation connection from Windsor Street Exchange to Africville

Installation of bike facilities (bike racks, repair stations, etc.)

Commemorative signage throughout Africville

Wayfinding signage for Africville Museum and Park
